FOREIGN NEWS ON APPLES

THE HAMBURG APPLE MARKET

Most boxed apple prices showed some decline at the Hamburg auction, Thursday, January 30, over last week's prices but York Imperials held their own, according to a cable received in the Foreign Service from Mr. F. A. Motz, the Department of Agriculture's fruit specialist in Europe. The decline in boxed apple prices was due largely to the increase in sales from 22,500 boxes last week to 40,000 this week. Sales of barrelled apples also increased somewhat. Last week 1,300 barrels were sold as compared with 1,600 this week. At this time a year ago 66,200 boxes and 4,500 barrels were offered at the auction. There was a very keen demand for Oregon Ortleys, the Extra fancy, 138/163 grade making $4.76 to $5.36 per box. The boxed apple prices were on the whole better than those paid last year at this time, especially for Ortley and Newtown.
